

10 Free And Cheap Things To Do This Week In London: 20-26 March 2023

By Londonist

Looks like this article is a bit old. Be aware that information may have changed since it was published.

Things to do in London this week for £5 or less.

9. Check out Wembley Park's new outdoor exhibition

Fiona Grady's Sun-Kissed installation forms part of Wembley Park's new outdoor exhibition.

An all-female lineup of artists have taken over Wembley Park, for free al fresco exhibition, Equilibrium. Discover Acrylicize's hypnotic makeover of the Spanish Steps; Fiona Grady's piece, Sun-Kissed (which uses original K2 phone boxes); and Lucy Hardcastle's Jelly Experiments Series — featuring experimental digital films, inspired by suspended realities and physical illusions. It's a chance to see the permanent artworks installed here too.

Free, until 25 June